

THE BURNS CLUB OF LONDON

THE WILLIAM WILL MEMORIAL LECTURE

in

Portcullis House, by the HOUSE OF COMMONS, London SW1

Hosted by Andrew Mitchell MP, Shadow Minister for International Development

Professor Murray Pittock FRSE

will talk on

ROBERT BURNS AND GLOBAL CULTURE

Tickets £25 per person (for lecture and wine reception afterwards)

Monday 2nd March 2009
7 o'clock sharp

The MacMillan Room
Portcullis House,
House of Commons

Murray Pittock is one of the best known scholars and writers on Scotland and Scottish culture and is a well known and entertaining speaker and lecturer. As part of the 250th anniversary celebrations for Robert Burns's birth, Murray will be speaking on this subject here for the Burns Club of London and internationally in Edinburgh, Prague and Vancouver.

The William Will Memorial Lecture has been a highlight of the Scottish year in London and this year's combination of anniversary, lecturer and location means it's an evening not to be missed.

Tickets to the lecture and reception cost £25 and are strictly limited and must be booked in advance

To: Ann McGinn, 42 Whitehall Road, Harrow, Middx HA1 3AJ

Please reserve _____ places for me/us for the Lecture at the House of Commons on Monday 2nd March, 2009

Our names are:

I enclose a cheque payable to THE BURNS CLUB OF LONDON for £25 per person

Signed _____ Print Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____ e-mail _____

The Burns Club Of London: Founded 1868: No 1 on the roll of The Robert Burns World Federation