There has been a growing awareness of the importance of Russia and the Central and East European region in an international context. Events in Ukraine and between Russia and the West have highlighted the need for a further understanding of the entire Eurasian region.

On Thursday 4 and Friday 5 June 2015 the University of Glasgow will host the 7th Annual CRCEES Research Forum.

The Research Forum is calling for proposals for individual papers or panels, plenary sessions, and workshops. We welcome contributions from postgraduate students; these may either take the form of papers integrated within panels or discreet post-graduate events. Proposals from those outside the CRCEES network are also welcome.

We are looking for proposals in the following research areas:

- Area studies and post-socialism
- History and memory
- Identity and minority rights
- European Union and post-enlargement studies
- Regionalism
- Migration and diaspora
- Security and international relations
- Material and visual culture and national identity.
