

STORIES OF KNITTING IN THE UNIVERSITY OF GLASGOW PARTICIPANT AGREEMENT AND CONSENT TO THE USE OF DATA

I understand that Roslyn Chapman is collecting data in the form of a questionnaire for use in an academic research project at the University of Glasgow. This questionnaire is to ask about your experiences of knitting in the University of Glasgow.

Since 2010, Professor Lynn Abrams and Dr Marina Moskowitz have collaborated on knitted textile related projects. From study days, workshops, exhibitions and more recently the introduction of University of Glasgow Cochno Wool. As part of this knitting research, we are collecting information and stories about knitting in the University. We are interested in your stories from any time period and either as a knitter in the University, or as someone who saw knitting in the University.

The questionnaire asks for some personal data:

1. Name [optional, you may remain anonymous or use a pseudonym]
2. Position at the University: undergraduate, postgraduate, a member of staff, both?
3. If you are/were a student, what was your Degree and year of graduation?
4. If you are/were a member of staff, what is/was your role [academic, research, university services]

It is not necessary to provide this data to participate in the research. If you prefer not to provide any personal data, we would still like to hear any stories you may have.

I give my consent to the use of data for this purpose on the understanding that:

I maintain the right to withdraw from the project.
I have the choice to be named as a participant or to remain anonymous and identified by a unique code or standardised description (for example, student, staff)
The material will be treated as confidential and kept in secure storage at all times.
Extracts from my questionnaire may be used in future publications, both print and online.
The material will be retained by the University of Glasgow indefinitely as part of a historical research project and may be used for further research.

We will be processing your data under the legal basis 'Public task' under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR: May 2018). Full details are available in the accompanying Privacy Notice.
