

The Economics of Slavery and Unfreedom in Medieval Europe

Saturday, March 26th, 2022

Kibble Suite, Glasgow Grosvenor Hotel

	Opening Remarks	10:00
Panel 1	Slave Trading and Economic Modelling Chaired by Anna Molnar (King's College London)	10:10
	Economics and the structure of the slave trade Adam Sands (Volterra Consulting)
	Coase and State Formation; the case of Piast Poland Dr. Andrew Roach (University of Glasgow)
Panel 2	Supply, Demand, and Markets Chaired by Rachel Porteous (University of Glasgow)	11:20
	The elasticity of slave supply in early medieval Europe Dr. Janel Fontaine (University of Glasgow/Institute of Historical Research)
	Popups and fixed points: markets from Shestovytsya to Cherson Dr. Jonathan Shepard (University of Oxford)
	Lunch Break	12:30
Panel 3	Slavery in the Archaeological Record Chaired by Dr. Janel Fontaine	1:30
	The rise of Mediaeval Slavery in the East-Central Europe: between war captives, traded slaves and mancipia . An archaeological view. Prof. Jiří Macháček (Masaryk University)
	Tainted Midas touch? The curious case of Viking-Age Gotland Dr. Jacek Gruszczynski (PCA Heritage)
	Tea & Coffee Break	2:40
Discussion	The Economics of Slavery	2:55
	Closing Remarks	3:30
	Reception	3:40